

Salvation Stories

SALVATION IS A "BEFORE AND AFTER" EVENT!

I have grown up in a Christian institution. Everything that we do is centered by God or on Him. Regardless of that fact, I wasn't always born again. In fact I was very rude and disrespectful.

After years of God seeing me and watching my backward movement, He decided to speak and take action, so that a certain girl's life may be saved. We were having our evening devotions as usual, and I got very bored and expressively disruptive. So, mama decided to not waste words on me and sent me off to bed. And I went off gallantly!

As I was on my way to the room, mama told me to read Proverbs, 1:8 "Hear, my son, your father's instruction and forsake not your mother's teaching," and Proverbs 10:1 "A wise son makes a glad father, while a foolish son is a sorrow to his mother." When I read the scripture my conscience was awakened, and I felt very guilty and remorseful.

In my great awakening, I went to mama after she was done having devotions with my sisters and apologized to her. She said, "You are forgiven, but now you should also go to God and confess your sins and repent". After I had done that, I felt at peace with my mama and God.

That night I did not go to bed the same, I changed and I believe God has a purpose for you. He will let you realize that. Everyone's purpose is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever. In brief, everyone's life is for a purpose. Thank you.

Yours faithfully,
