

Salvation Stories

SALVATION IS A "BEFORE AND AFTER" EVENT!

Salvation Story of Alamin

Before I Accepted Christ: This is Alamin Hossain. I grew up in Barishal, Bangladesh. I was raised in a devout Muslim household. My family's faith was the cornerstone of our lives, and I was taught to follow the Quran's teachings with unwavering devotion. However, as I grew older, I began to question the emptiness I felt in my heart, despite my adherence to religious rituals.

How I accepted Jesus Christ: Very recently, I was introduced to a Christian student group called WIFM - Campus. Initially, I was skeptical, but curiosity led me to attend one of their meetings. There, I encountered a professor named Edward, a former Muslim who had found profound meaning and purpose in his faith in Christ.

Edward's testimony was unlike anything I had ever heard. He spoke with such conviction about the love of God, a love that surpasses all human understanding. He shared his journey of leaving Islam and embracing Christianity, a decision that had transformed his life.

One particular event that deeply resonated with me was Edward's screening of the video "Jesus: The Man on the Middle Cross." This video depicted the life and sacrifice of Jesus Christ in a way that was both powerful and moving. As I watched the video, I learned that salvation is a gift from God, not earned through actions or religious practices.

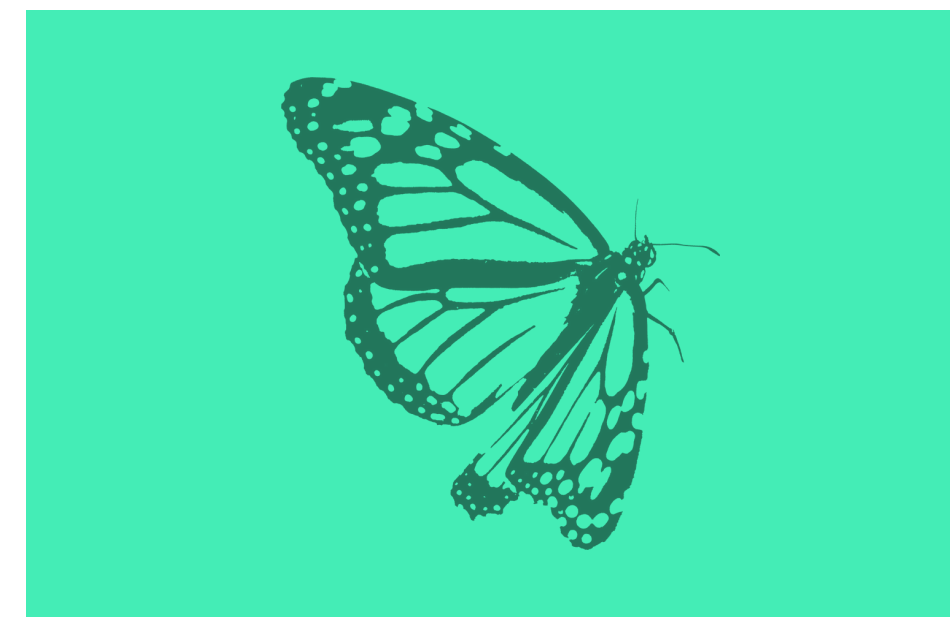

The story of the thief on the cross illustrates how even at the last moment, one can be saved through faith in Jesus. I was struck by the immense love that Jesus demonstrated for humanity. He willingly endured suffering and death to redeem us from sin.

Edward's testimony and the video ignited a spark within me. I began to question the core beliefs of my own faith. I realized that the empty rituals and legalistic practices I had been following were not fulfilling the longing in my heart. I yearned for a genuine relationship with a loving God, a God who cared for me personally.

After much prayer and reflection, I made the life-changing decision to embrace

Salvation

Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. It was not an easy decision, as I knew it would mean facing opposition and potential rejection from my family and community. However, the peace and joy that filled my heart upon surrendering my life to Christ far surpassed any fear or uncertainty.

My newfound faith in Christ has transformed my life in countless ways. I have experienced the forgiveness of sins, the presence of the Holy Spirit, and the unwavering love of God. I am no longer bound by the fear and guilt that once plagued me. Instead, I am free to live a life of purpose and meaning, knowing that I am loved unconditionally by my Heavenly Father.

My Present life: My journey of faith is ongoing, and I am grateful for the opportunity to share my story with others. I pray that my testimony will encourage those who are seeking truth and meaning in their lives to turn to Jesus Christ, the only source of true hope and salvation.
