

Salvation Stories

SALVATION IS A “BEFORE AND AFTER” EVENT!

Before I accepted Christ: My name is Prince Ahmed, and I am from Bangladesh. For a significant portion of my life, I adhered to my traditional religious background, finding a sense of familiarity within its practices. However, a deep, persistent yearning for genuine peace and understanding remained within me.

How I accepted Jesus Christ: One day, while browsing social media, I encountered a video shared by a WIFM-Bangladesh. It was a simple song, yet its message resonated with a profound truth I had never fully grasped. Intrigued, I explored more of the ministry's online resources, watching videos and reading the provided materials. The information was challenging, yet deeply compelling.

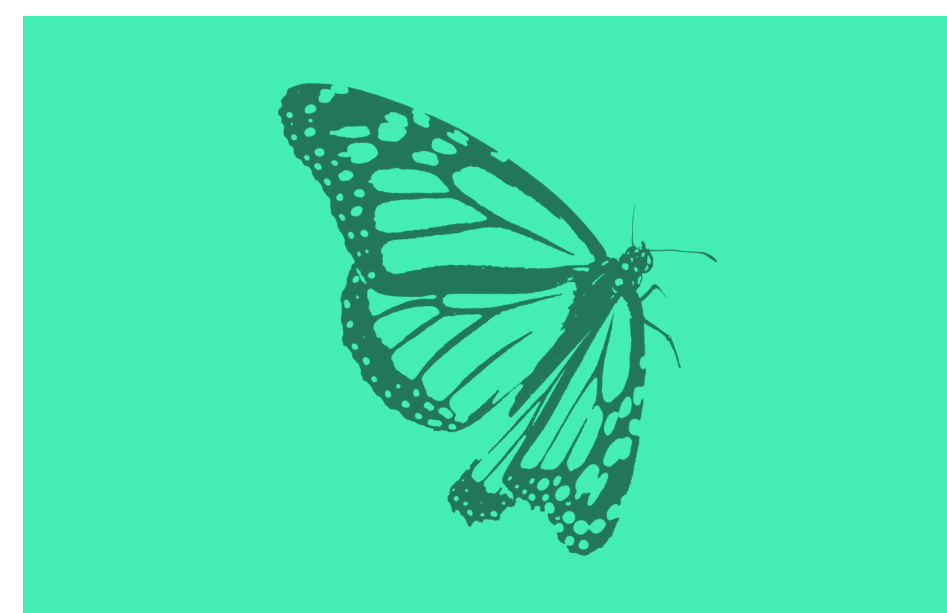

I decided to connect with an anonymous lady from the page online, and we engaged in a series of conversations. They were patient and kind, addressing my questions and doubts with clarity and grace. I shared my background, my struggles, and the questions that weighed heavily on my heart. Through these conversations, I began to see the person of Jesus Christ in a new and transformative light.

My understanding of faith shifted, and it centered on these core truths:

- Jesus Christ is God.
- The Scriptures are inspired by God.
- Salvation is found in Jesus Christ alone.
- Jesus Christ is the only way to heaven.

The realization of my sin and separation from God was overwhelming. I understood that my own desires, plans, and sense of control were ultimately illusions. I surrendered everything to Jesus, acknowledging His sovereignty over my life. I prayed, expressing my remorse, my surrender, and my desire for His forgiveness and a new life.

I understood that salvation is a personal matter, a matter of the heart between me and God. Yet, I also recognized that following Christ requires a public expression of faith. Therefore, I acknowledged Jesus Christ as my Savior and Lord. I prayed, confessing my sin and asking for forgiveness and eternal life.

My life has been transformed. I have found peace, hope, and a new purpose in Jesus Christ. I encourage anyone seeking truth to explore the resources available online and to open their hearts to the love of God.

My Present Life: Since accepting Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior, my life has undergone a profound transformation. The longing for true peace and understanding that once lingered within me has been replaced by a deep and abiding joy. The weight of my past burdens has been lifted, and I now walk in the freedom of forgiveness.

My perspective on everything has shifted. Where once I relied on my own understanding, I now surrender to God's will, trusting in His perfect plan for my life. My life's work, which once defined my identity, is now viewed through the lens of God's creation, fueling a sense of wonder and awe.

My relationships have been touched by God's grace. I strive to love others as Christ loves me, extending compassion and forgiveness. I find myself more patient, more understanding, and more eager to share the hope I have found in Jesus. I now see my work and my relationships as opportunities to glorify God. I am learning more from these fellow people and waiting for the future steps.
